Christina Alfred Wins "Sing Your Way to $100K"

Atmore, AL (May 26, 2010) - Christina Alfred, a 25 year old native of Phenix City, AL, walked away the winner of Sing Your Way to $100K on Friday night. Sing Your Way to $100K was a talent contest hosted by Wind Creek Casino & Hotel in which participants competed for a chance to win $100,000. The competition began in January with over 2000 hopefuls and was gradually whittled down to the top two finalists. The finalists competed for cash prizes and a chance to audition for a recording contract.

Alfred, who has been singing as long as she has been talking, has never had any formal music lessons. When asked about the competition she replied, "It was a blessing to be in the contest. Performing different genres of music and the talented competition made me grow as an artist."

Her dad, who is currently in Afghanistan, brought her to her first audition but did not have the opportunity to watch her sing her way to the top of the contest. Upon the announcement that she had won the competition, Christina said that her "knees buckled" and she "could not stop crying." Christina plans to use her winnings to continue pursuing her dream of recording her music, entertaining crowds and performing at sold out shows.
