Culinary Masters Chef Challenge at Wind Creek to Showcase Culinary Talent

Atmore, AL (May 3, 2011) - Join us for the Culinary Masters Chef Challenge Competition on May 23 and 24, 2011. The event will be held in the Coosawada Ballroom and Cooking Studio at Wind Creek on Monday, May 23, 2011, 2pm – 6pm and Tuesday, May 24, 2011, 7am – 4pm. Admission is free for all spectators.

Come to Wind Creek and be inspired as the culinary competitors from all over the United States showcase their talents at the Master Chef's Challenge. The focus of this event is on raising the standards of culinary excellence and professionalism while nurturing the creativity of individual chefs.

As an additional treat to this food expo extraordinaire, the President of the American Culinary Federation and the Chairman of the American Academy of Chefs will be available to share thoughts, comments and vision of the Master Chef's Challenge both locally and nationally.
